DEDICATION . . .

Dignity of manner . . . nobility of character . . . honesty of purpose . . . courage of conviction . . . these and many other indescribable qualities of a beloved personality, have left their influence upon the Fresno Technical students in their contacts with a friend indeed. With stimulating interest he has watched, and stepped in to foster, the growth of most every student activity; he has for long, most wisely and frugally directed the financial affairs of the school; and, with words, ever judicious, he has counseled the governing bodies toward the goal of an increasingly improved student body. It is with deep gratitude to so loyal and honorable a teacher that the staff dedicates the 1940 Technicalities to Mr. O. D. Carter.

FOREWARD . . .

This year's Technicalities comes to you, streamlined in style, largely pictorial, and with simplified arrangement in contrast to former editions.

Compiled under the Wolfhead, this volume adds to the records of the year's events, the traditional "Tech spirit" which has strongly marked all of Tech's student bodies since the beginning.

The Wolfhead may be likened to a badge of honor that has bound us with a single aim—never to blemish its gleam with dishonor, never to tarnish its brightness with disloyalty.

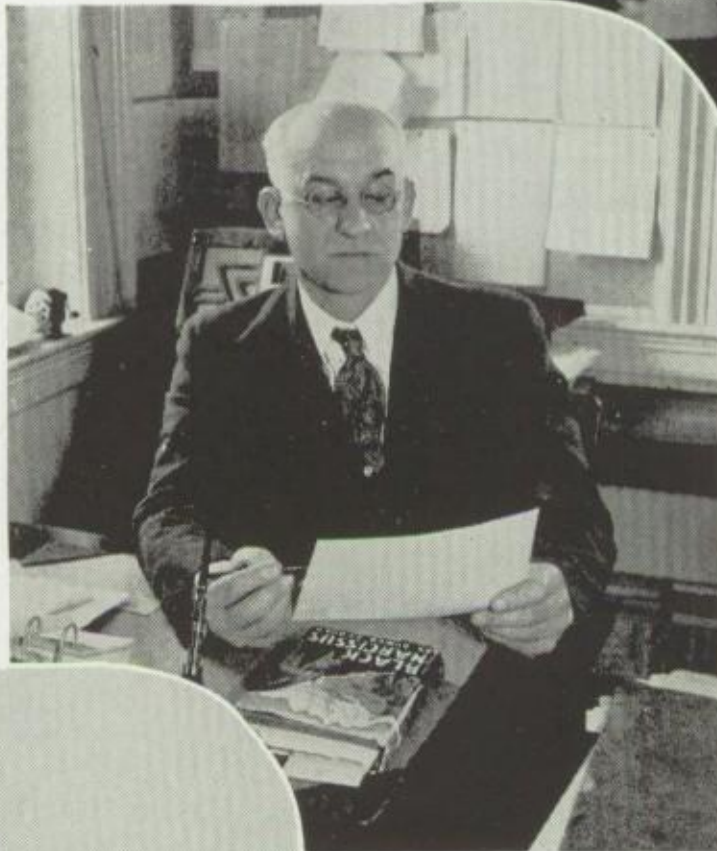

As the memories of the past, called forth by these records, bring you pleasure, so may the shining ideal of the Wolfhead mark your future with success.

Student body officers and faculty advisers sit as a council to study problems of the student government, to render decisions, and to maintain the government as set up by the student body constitution. Routine affairs, a study of parliamentary methods, and the application of last year's budget regulations occupied the first semester's council. Toward spring, with total expense accounts of the year coming in, the council faced the emergency of a deficit. To avoid any such deficit, they planned a carnival, which was held at the beginning of the second semester. It was a night of such fun that it threatens to become an annual affair.

Revision of the student body constitution was the first task undertaken by the spring council. The many, and much needed, changes proposed by the constitution study group, and accepted by the council, will be submitted to the students at a special election.

Greater understanding of various student activities has been promoted among all the students through the investigation conducted by this council in its study of the worth of the student body card, and its branches.

The council has striven to meet problems honestly and squarely, to lay facts open to students, and it has brought about a sympathy and understanding among the various activities.

BACCALAUREATE

Spiritual blessing on the class of "40" was invoked by Reverend Hubert C. Mathews of the First Baptist Church in the Baccalaureate service held in that church Sunday, June 2nd.

Jack Croes read a selection of scripture. Marvin Jackson led the class Prayer of Commitment. Responsive reading was led by Merton Jackson. Grant Koolcanian sang a baritone solo, "My Task," by E. L. Ashford.

Middle: Croes.

COMMENCEMENT

Finis will be written on the high school careers of 224 seniors, when their commencement is celebrated Thursday evening, June 6, in the Fresno Memorial Auditorium. Dignity of dress is emphasized by the lovely maroon caps and gowns.

Four student speakers will deliver addresses around the theme "What makes Technical a great and a successful high school". William Stapp, Carl Inman, and Betty Lou Atchley are the valedictory speakers, and Richard Alexander is the elected speaker.

Musical numbers will exhibit the arts and skills of members of the graduation class; the class song and the Alma Mater will be conducted by senior song leaders.

Principal William A. Otto will make honor awards to seniors, and a member of the Board of Education will present the diplomas.

CLASS

DOLAGARAY

Ho-Hum! Fun to revive memories isn't it? Sit down and let's talk it over. Do you remember this familiar compliment?

"... and my dear, your senior sweater goes simply marvelously with your skirt!"? That was all that could be heard around here the third week of school. That's right ... it was Senior Sweater Week.

Yes, sir, as everyone knows, we seniors are different. Instead of a square ring we decided on a round one with the simple design of a "T" and a "40".

Don't be alarmed ... I haven't forgotten that basketball game the Senior boys won from the Junior College boys.

Lick 'em and like 'em ... that's the way our Senior boys felt after they defeated the Juniors in a rip-roaring volley ball game.

Hands-up! Here come some "well-armed" men. Right! They're the outstanding athletes of our class of "40" ... Some of them were Bud Ingraham, Albert Halden, Leonard Masini, and Chester Summers. And what about Steve Baronian?

"But Mary! Oh alright! Kids, Mary Krikorian still insists that she'll never be a second Alice Marble.

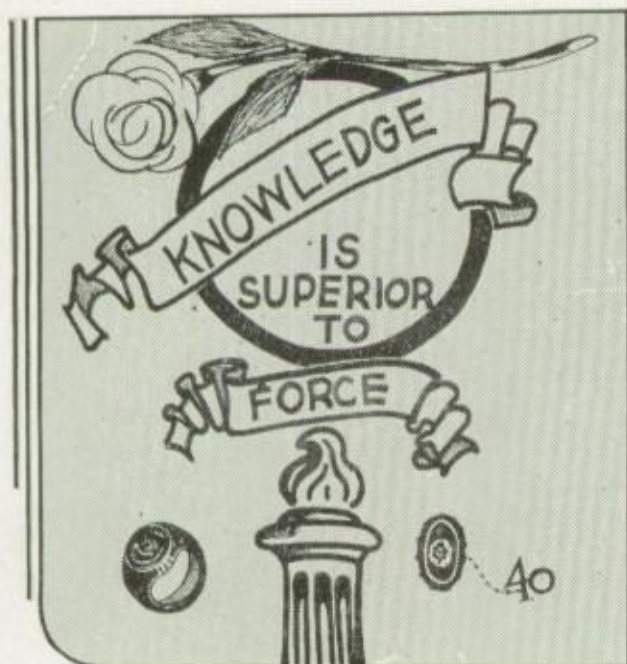

A gift of gab? Well, I guess it helps ... our debating team was very successful this year. But why shouldn't it be with such talking sons as Melvin Nester and Bud Ingraham on the team!

"... and please hold on a minute ... I haven't forgotten the Senior play. Pretty swell, huh? "The Youngest" was the name of it. Dick Alexander and Jeanette Fechner took care of the leading roles, and they were very well taken care of I'd say.

A beaming face? Oh, that was John Martin. Out of six plaque designs submitted John's was chosen. A torch, a brim of a clock, and a "1940" across the center constitutes the design. The plaque claimed its place on the front walk at the ceremony when we all put mementoes in the little box to be buried under the plaque.

Tramp! Tramp! Tramp! Our boys went marching and came back with flying colors from the annual cadet competition in the Memorial Auditorium. Yes, sir, we won the trophy from our competitors, Fresno High, Edison, and Roosevelt cadets. Captain Earl Whaley deserves a lot of credit. Even though our girl cadets hadn't any competition (since they're the only company in the state) they did their exhibitions with finesse. Captain Helen Phelps Hansen did us "proud".

CLASS SOUVENIRS

"Hey, somebody throw me my grass skirt, I want to get into the mood of this thing." Yes, I'm talking about the Junior-Senior prom, May 10. Boy, that South Sea Island atmosphere really got me.

Senior girls were guests of honor at the last Girls' League Meeting.

Water, Water everywhere, and boy did we have fun! I don't mean anything else but the Senior Picnic held at Bass Lake! On the 4th of June.

With serious manner Seniors listened to their very fine baccalaureate services at the "First Baptist Church" the Sunday night before graduation.

You're wrong! My, Oh, My, what a thing to forget! Well I'll tell you again. Red and White were our class colors, and our flower was the rose. The motto was "Knowledge is superior to force". And how beautifully the roses were used by the Juniors in decorating for baccalaureate and for commencement.

"... and you're right about those announcements." They had a torch on the front and a wolf head on the back with a "1940" under which you put your personal cards.

Yes, sir, they got rhythm . . . Two song writers in our midst. Grant Koolcanian and Lee Hagobian wrote the words and music to "My Song". It has been sent to a New York publisher and copyrighted. The boys, with that old class loyalty, wrote some more appropriate words to their music, and it emerged as the Senior Class Song.

Oh! the flowers that bloom in the spring tra-la! At commencement a group of our golden-voiced Seniors from the music department led by Lee sang "Oh Singing Land".

"My Friends"! while that isn't exactly what they said, the speakers for commencement delivered some impressive words that night, pointing out the varied values under the theme, "What makes Technical a great and successful high school."

Well, that's finis, kids. I hope you'll not let the pictures fade . . . Let's get together often and remember and remember and remember . . . Be seein' you.

CLASS SONG

Verse

Our hearts sing for you alone.
Our Dear Fresno Tech.
We must leave with sorrow
This Day we'll never forget.

Chorus

Fresno Technical High,
The days spent here were grand
We know you'll understand
Why we must leave you now,
The hours spent here were few,
But joys we never knew,
Were found working with you.
Thru all the years.
As we sing you this melody,
Our hearts are blue
Tech will live in our memory
We hate to say goodbye to you,
Our love lingers with you
Thru sunshine or thru rain
Always Tech will remain
Here in our hearts.

Commercial courses are designed to give complete business training pointing directly toward employment. The post graduate classes offer completion work for those whose commercial courses are unfinished at graduation or for high school graduates who wish to become proficient in one or more phases of office work.

Training is available for stenographers, bookkeepers, office machine operators, general office workers, switchboard operators, and dictaphone operators. In fact almost any kind of business training may be had.

A staff of ten teachers devote full time in the commerce department.

GIRLS' COOKING

Special attention is given to the planning and preparing for special parties in the foods classes. Students are taught to plan meals, salads, school lunches and discuss many other domestic problems. In advanced cooking, child care and invalid cookery are studied. Luncheons and dinners are served for classes and often for outside groups.

In clothing I and II the constructing of garments is taught. Home problems and home decorations are studied and discussed. The advanced clothing classes gain knowledge of handling of silk and woolen materials.

In the homemaking classes the study ranges from better buymanship to home beautification and work in food classes.

COMPANY D CALIFORNIA HIGH SCHOOL CADETS

With the largest cadet corps in Tech's history and the only girls' cadet corps in the state, the military training students have brought honor aplenty to their Alma Mater this year. Captain O. D. Guffey is the instructor of both groups. Ably captained by Earl Whaley and boasting the regimental sergeant in charge of operations for all four City high school companies, namely, Jack Croes, Company D for the second consecutive year won the Eagles' Trophy at the annual competition this spring. More than 20 members attended the annual state encampment at San Luis Obispo.

Helen Traywick and Helen Phelps Hansen shared honors as captain of the girls corps which made a creditable showing at the annual city competition.

Company D won the Efficiency Award for the highest rating in the State of California.

HAYS

Terminating the most successful year in Tech's musical history the enlarged department won the admiration and pride of the entire school when the vocal and instrumental groups combined to stage a delightful musical assembly in April. Two record classes in Girls Glee under the direction of Mrs. Lucile Williams and the Mixed Chorus taught by Mr. Paul L. R. Mueller have presented quality programs on the radio, and at the Christmas, Armistice and Easter assemblies. A brass quartet, a double piano ensemble and vocal groups, composed of seniors only, will present the music for commencement on June 6.

With more than 100 students the piano classes receive beginning instructions on claviers, and advanced students are receiving ensemble work, as well as public appearance experience in piano.

Vocal and instrumental soloists have received reputable praise this year.

One of the finest school dance orchestras in the valley has been developed under the competent direction of Mr. Robert Arnold.

Instrumental music claims 174 students. Mr. Arnold and Mr. Will Hayes each have classes in band and deserve the high praise which their combined bands have earned in their public appearances. Emphasis is placed upon legitimate music.

A class in harmony boasts 26 members. Students are writing melodies and learning to make musical arrangements.

Creditable, original arrangements for the orchestra have been written by Doris Pitts, Cameron Harding and Robert Hughes.

Three charming majorettes have been added to the band this year.

To give all students enrolled in dramatics a chance for self expression, poise and dramatic experience is the ultimate aim of the drama program. Eight students entered the finals and presented a program for outside guests at the Chapel of the Light on April 10. June Barnes reading "Juliet's Speech," and William Anderson with "King Robert of Sicily" won high honors.

Fresno Technical has the unique position of being the only school in the San Joaquin valley, and one of the very few in the United States, to conduct a Poetry Festival in which hundreds of students read poetry for the enjoyment of their classmates during a six weeks period. Proceeding by eliminator process of judging to a final program, a girl and a boy are named as winners.

VARSITY

Coaches J. W. "Pop" Warner and Wayne L. Henderson this year moulded a football team which easily managed to win its share of games. With but five lettermen returning from last year's squad, the coaches combined a fast and deceptive offense with an unusually strong defense in turning out a grid machine which bowed only to Fresno High and Roosevelt.

Fresno Tech 6—Lemoore 0.

In their opening game the Wolves displayed expert passing, a fine running attack, and a brilliant defense. Masini and Delecce starred on the offense, while Koolcanian, Kilgore and Bernardi were stand-outs on the defense.

Fresno Tech 6—Madera 6

A pass from Masini to Tilly gave Tech a halftime lead of 6 to 0 in this first league game. However, Pinion threw the tying pass to Cerioni in the third quarter, and the rest of the game was a hard fought affair. Captain Kilgore and Steve Baronian showed well in the line.

Fresno Tech 7—Selma 3

Having the reputation of being hard, yet clean fighters, the Wolfpack was invited to play in this benefit game at Selma. It was a thrilling contest as the Wolves came from behind in the closing minutes to continue their unbeaten record.

Fresno Tech 19—Edison 0

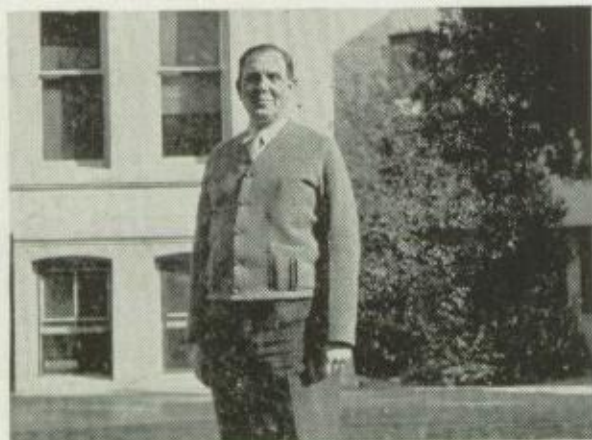

Masini, Coyle, Sommers, Delecce and Kemp passed, ran, and kicked the ball from literally "all over the field" in this exciting game which was played under a very hot sun. Jorgensen, Tilly, and Jacobsen were outstanding on the line.

Fresno Tech 0—Fresno High 14

Unable to cope with the Warrior's passing and running attack—until the second half—the Wolfpack nevertheless, was a hustling and fighting pack. Late in the fourth quarter the Wolves were close to the Warrior goal, but the drive was ended when fresh Warrior reserves were sent into the game.

Fresno Tech 0—Roosevelt 3

Thrilling, but heart-breaking was this game. It was an all-senior team which started, and which played most of this finale; but luck was against them. Masini again starred with his long kicks but Tech dropped two passes behind the goal line and lost the ball twice on downs within the 5-yard line.

Top Row: Coach Fortune, Wafford, Thompson, Scott, Halden, Conner, Mattacks, Poulsen, Martin, Marbut, and Cep-

LIGHTWEIGHT

LEIGHTON

Tech's two new Coaches, Don Fortune and Lloyd Leighton, former Fresno State College athletes, built a lightweight team this year which, although very small, gave a good account of itself throughout the season.

FRESNO TECH 13—FOWLER 0

Outplaying the Red Cats all through the game, the Cubs scored in the first quarter via a pass from Poulsen to Cole, and, again, in the second half, when Mattacks completed a long pass to Halden.

FRESNO TECH 13—WASHINGTON UNION 0

Tech, inspired by the Fowler victory, displayed a brilliant passing and running attack in their next game. In the first quarter, Mattacks completed a pass to Cole for a touchdown, and in the fourth quarter, the Techsters scored again with a series of line plays.

FRESNO TECH 0—FRESNO HIGH 7

The over-confident lightweights lost this first league game when they allowed Davies, Fresno High fullback, to go through the center of the line late in the third quarter. Tech's offensive was led by Poulsen and Mattacks while Halden and Thompson led the defensive.

FRESNO TECH 0—ROOSEVELT 20

After holding the Buckaroos scoreless throughout the first half, the Cubs had two passes intercepted and run back for touchdowns, in the third and fourth quarters. An end run accounted for the other touchdown.

FRESNO TECH 7—EDISON TECH 25

End runs, reverses, and power plays brought the Tigers their four touchdowns over the crippled Cubs. Desperately the Cubs started Passing near the end of the game, and made their only score when Cole passed to Garretsen. Holden kicked the extra point.

FRESNO TECH 0—MADERA 12

Outplaying the Coyotes for the greatest part of the game, the Techsters held the game to a scoreless tie until the last 3 minutes. Martin, Conner, and Quercia were outstanding for Tech.

LIGHTWEIGHT

John Martin—Although a good passer and runner, Johnny was valuable at his halfback position primarily for his blocking and defensive ability. He is a senior.

Leo Bernardi—A good, all-round player; "Pete" stood out as a punter and deadly tackler.

Jacob Holden—Equally adept at breaking up plays and snagging passes, "Jake" also was outstanding as the Cub's drop-kicker.

Gordon Scott—"Scotty," in his first year of football, proved an aggressive and hard-fighting lineman at his tackle position.

Louis Marbut—"Tex" was a fast man and especially good on defense. He is a junior.

Joe Quercia—A two-year lightweight letterman, Joe will return next year when his aggressive style should prove valuable.

Nick Kourafas—Whether the squad's position demanded a line plunge or a shifty runner to pick up yards, "Nick" was a halfback ready for the occasion.

Lawrence Ecklund—Larry, one of the squad's smallest players, was a fast runner and a fast-thinking quarterback.

Melvin Azevedo—"Porky" was a hard-hitting, reserve fullback. He will return next year.

Kenneth Poulsen—Playing his first year of competitive football, Kenny made many long runs. He also did most of the passing.

LETTERMEN

Bill Garretson—Although small, "Red" made up this deficiency with his pass-catching and defensive adeptness.

Jack Mattocks—Noted for his brilliant punting and passing, Jack played right halfback. He will return for next year's squad.

Phil Cole—A veteran of two campaigns, Phil played quarterback. A very fast man, he was captain of this year's squad.

Jack Connor—A defensive demon, Jack often slashed in to tackle the opposing ball carrier before the play had time to materialize.

John Thompson—A guard, John, a good blocker and tackler, was very fast.

Ivan Nyberg—A sophomore this year, Ivan was hard-hitting and a strong offensive guard. He has two more years of playing eligibility.

Edward Franz—Ed was very adept at breaking through the line for many tackles. He will return next year.

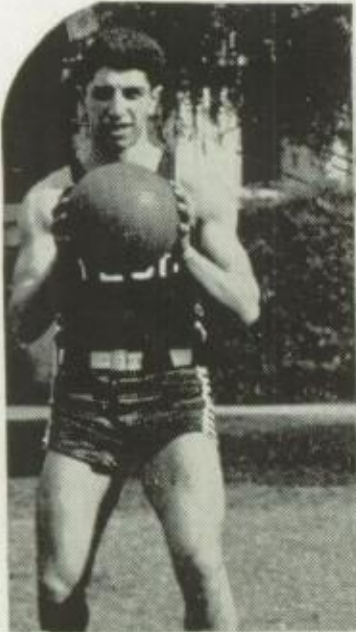

Richard Gridley—Dick, at the beginning of the season, was an efficient center, but he later proved more valuable as a fullback.

Bergh Poochigian—A veteran who, in his sophomore and junior years, proved constantly worrisome to the opposition. "Pooch" was a big help to the team.

Frank Guido—Despite his size, Frank was one of the best tacklers on the team. He will have two more years of football eligibility.

BASKETBALL

IRWIN INGRAHAM—Forward—In earning his second Varsity basketball letter, "Bud" was a "heads-up" player who tallied many points for Tech before he was graduated at mid-term.

LEE HAGOBIAN—Forward—A graduate of last year's class B squad, Lee proved a reliable man in the pinches. He was graduated at mid-term.

AL HALDEN—Forward—Noted for his long one-handed shots, Al completed his three years on the Varsity by being voted a berth on the All-Valley team.

STEVE BARONIAN—Forward—He wasn't a "first-stringer" at the beginning of the season, but his almost impregnable defensive style and his accurate shooting eye amazed fans as the season came to an end.

JOHN BERKERIAN—Forward—A player who could always be depended upon at any time to help pull the Wolves out of trouble was Johnny. A Senior, he is a veteran of both the Cubs and Varsity.

MERVIN SALWASSER—Center—Only a Junior, "Solly" captained the casaba five this year. He was conceded to be one of the best centers in the league.

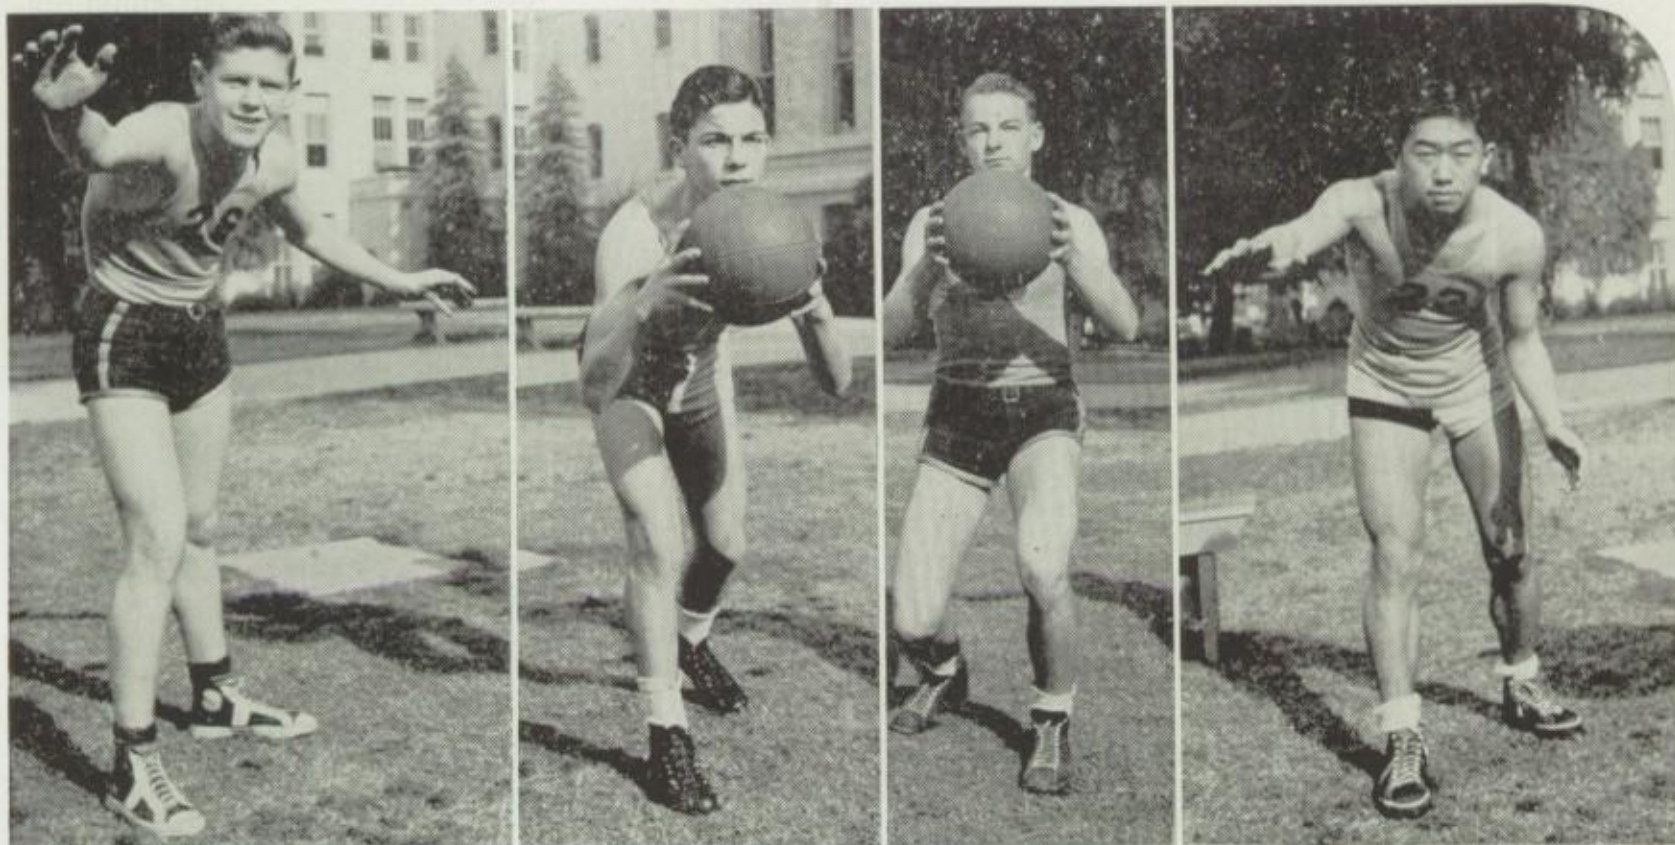

CHESTER SOMMERS—Guard—Reporting to the Varsity after a year of lightweight experience, "Chet" was a bulwark on defense. The Wolfpack suffered a severe blow when graduation forced his exit at mid-term.

LEONARD MASINI—Guard—A player of two years experience, "Mickey" played back guard, and was also included on the All-Valley roster.

SARKIS BARONIAN—Guard—It was in the last games that "Sark" proved himself class A Varsity material. A clever floor-man, he will return next year.

LETTERMEN . . .

BERNARD OSLIN—Guard—Possessor of an accurate "shooting eye" and also a remarkable floorman, "Bud" proved very valuable to the squad. Bud is a Junior.

JERRY HAGOBIAN—Forward—Diminutive Jerry, always a scoring threat, gave opponents no end of trouble. A Junior, he will return next year.

JACOB HALDEN—Center—Not only was he captain of the champion Lightweights, but "Jake" was also their leading scorer. A Junior, he made his second letter this year.

VUNAIIKA MASUDA—Guard—A new man at Tech this year, "Suda" established himself as a competent guard; outstanding on both the offense and defense.

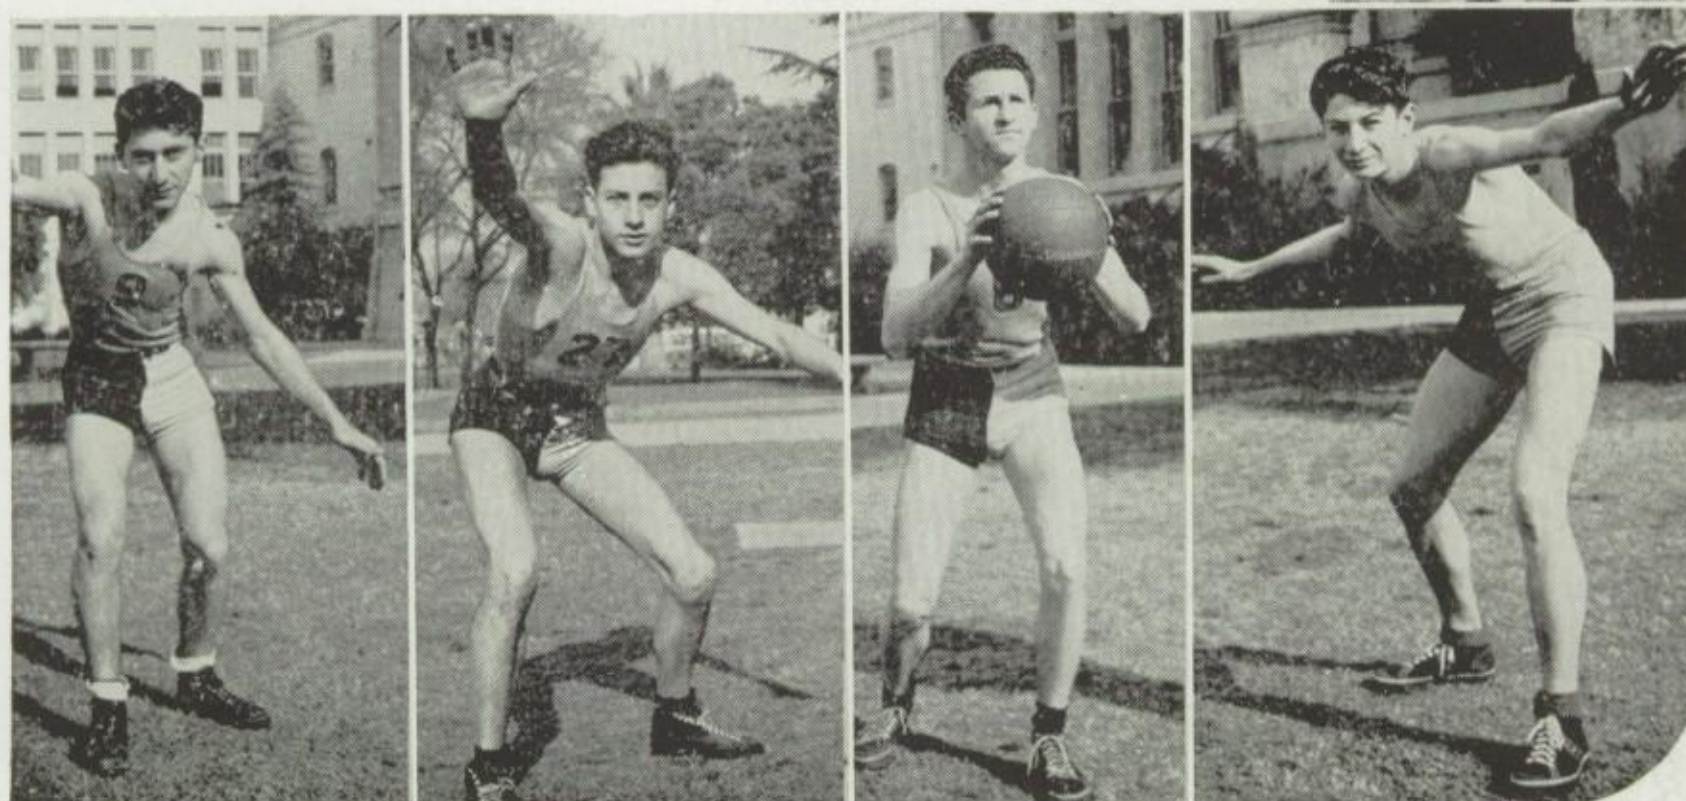

IVAN NYBERG—Center—A good, all-around player, Ivan gained much experience which should prove valuable to him in the next two years.

BARR ANDREASIAN—Forward—In his Junior year, Barr proved a smooth ball handler and an impressive "shot." Like several of his team mates, he is a potential Varsity player.

NICK KOURAFAS—Forward—His enthusiasm a constant source of encouragement, Nick was a fast and accurate player. An experienced Lightweight player, he is a Junior.

GORDON SCOTT—Guard—Using his height and often unnoticed shooting ability to the best advantage, "Scotty" rang up his share of scoring throughout the season.

DONALD BERKERIAN—Guard—A strong defensive man, and a consistent starter, Don was an essential factor in the Cub's showings this year.

VARSITY

Composed for the most part of veterans from last year's Varsity and Class B squads, Fresno Tech's Wolfpack—while not always victorious—turned out a fighting, well-coached Casaba team which upheld our school's honor to the end.

Coached by J. W. "Pop" Warner, the Varsity was undefeated in their practice games. Having beaten Sanger, Clovis, Central and Tulare, the Wolves broke a city record for high scoring when they drubbed Kerman 89-9.

The over-confident Wolves, elated over their success, lost the first league game 28-25 to Edison Tech. Not unlike most of Tech's losses this game was "on ice" up until the last few minutes.

The Wolves next trekked to Roosevelt where they lost a thrilling game to the Rough Riders 23-22.

The Wolfpack then defeated the Fresno State College Frosh 28-27.

Tech was "nosed out" by Madera, and, in the last game of the first round, by Fresno High 24-22.

Minus "Bud" Ingraham, Chet Summers, and Lee Hagobian, graduates of mid-term, the Techsters avenged their first loss by defeating Edison 30-29, when Salwasser scored the winning basket with but seconds to go.

Returning home, Tech humbled Roosevelt 34-32, and a week later, dropped another thriller to Madera 26-23.

Going into the final minutes of the last game with Fresno High, the Techsters were trailing the Warriors, and although shooting desperately from every angle on the court, wound up on the short end, 53-42.

LIGHTWEIGHTS

The enthusiastic class B squad, coached by Paul Easterbrook and Adrian Quick emerged victorious over all their Division 5 opponents to capture the minor league title for the first time since 1931.

After winning seven out of nine practice games, the "Lites" overcame a skillful Edison team by a 26-25 score.

Returning home, the casaba five met the Madera invaders and subdued them with comparative ease, 18-12.

In the last game of the first round, Tech traveled to Fresno High to meet their highly touted team. In the hard-fought battle, Tech eked out a 15-14 win.

Running the bewildered Roosevelt opponents ragged, the B's scored a smashing victory. Tech won on the long end of a 39-28 count.

The stalwart basketeters next invaded Madera's casaba court and conquered the Coyotes by 23-10.

To clinch the city championship, the Tech cu's struck at Fresno High and overcame them by a 24-20 lead. This was the final city league triumph.

Elated by capturing the city division championship, the cubs journeyed to Selma to contend for the county title, where they scored a 26-20 victory to complete their title conquest.

BASEBALL

STEVE BARONIAN—S. S., T. B.—In making his second varsity baseball letter, Steve played both short stop and third base. He will be graduated this spring.

WILLIAM REHN—C. F.—Only a sophomore this year, "Red" promptly removed all other competitors for the center field position. He is a triple-threat runner, thrower, and hitter.

JACK MATTOCKS—S. S.—After gaining a year's experience playing for the Cubs, Jack performed his varsity duties in grand style. He is a senior.

JACOB HALDEN—S. B.—A veteran of two years, "Jake" was considered one of the better infielders of the league. He will return for next year's squad.

JOHN KENNETT—L. F., P.—Considered best in his favorite left-field position last year, "Jay" proved such claims to be true this season. Tech's leading distance hitter, "Jay" was also a notable curve-ball pitcher.

LEONARD MASINI—C.—Admittedly one of the best catchers in the league, "Mickey" earned his third Varsity baseball letter this year. As do several of his team-mates, "Mick" plans to play Twilight League ball this summer.

MERVIN SALWASSER—F. B.—Another veteran, "Solly," for the second season played the initial base in "better-than-ever" style. This was his last season of baseball eligibility.

TOM PEABODY—R. F.—Like Rehn, Tom pushed older competitors out of the varsity baseball "picture". His baseball record, when completed two years hence, should prove interesting, as he is a capable pitcher as well as an out-fielder.

ALBERT HALDEN—P.-L.F.—One of the team's most enthusiastic members, Al was a combined "pitcher-slugger" star. A veteran hurler, Al pitched the Wolfpack to all its league wins. When called upon, he also proved an effective out-fielder.

LETTERMEN

HARVEY LAWSON—L. F.—One of the squad's hardest hitters, Harvey earned his second Cub baseball letter this, his senior year.

LAWRENCE POGUE—S. S.—A fast and agile infielder, Lawrence displayed qualities of a potential Varsity player.

LOUIS CAGLIA—C. F.—Another potential Varsity man, "Louie" proved a fast runner, good hitter, and one of the most enthusiastic members of the squad.

SAM GARABEDIAN—C.—In earning his second letter at the backstop position, Sam proved a good hitter and the team's "sparkplug".

GORDON SCOTT—F. B.—The Cub's veteran first baseman, "Scotty" managed always to get his share of base hits. He is a senior.

FRANCIS DAKE—R. F.—A steady, dependable fielder, Francis proved a huge asset in acquiring his first baseball letter.

MERLE PETERSON—T. B.—A consistent starter at the "hot corner", Merle proved a contributing factor in the Cub's well showings.

MELVIN AZEVEDO—S. B.—"Porky" was a good fielder and a reliable man at the plate. This was his first baseball letter.

PERRY KREAMER—P.—One of the squad's more conscientious players, Perry earned his first baseball letter this year.

JACK COFFMAN—P.—Possessing a good fast ball and a sharp curve, Jack proved a constant menace to opposing batters.

TECH

W. L. Henderson, in his first year as track coach, turned out a well-rounded, enthusiastic track and field team. The squad, although comparatively small, made creditable showings in the Roosevelt, Central, City and County meets. The Wolves had the privilege of training on the Fresno State College stadium, considered one of the best tracks in the nation.

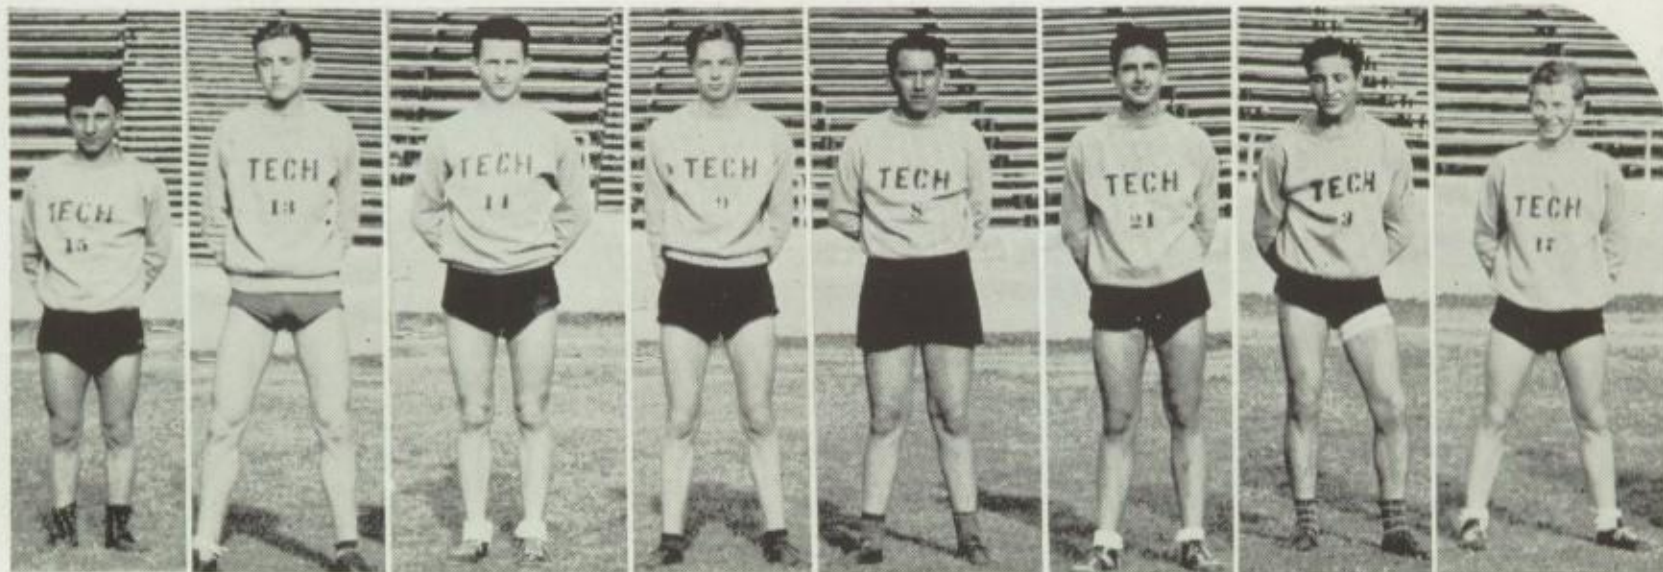

After a period of faithful practice, Coach Henderson took his cindermen to the Roosevelt 4-way meet composed of Tech, Roosevelt, Edison and Central. Captain-elect Neil Neimeyer, A class 880 man, ran a successful race ending up second to Larsen of Roosevelt with a timing of 2:07.

In the B class John Terzian, pole vaulter, placed third while the B relay team, composed of Volpa, Masuda, Thompson, and Rittue, beat Edison to place third. Larry Ecklund, veteran class C trackman, starred in his class by placing in two events, the broad jump and high jump. Ecklund jumped 19' 9" to place second in the broad jump, and cleared 5' 2" to take second in the high jump.

After a good showing at Roosevelt, Coach Henderson took his squad to Central where they met with Edison and Central and competed in a 4-way meet.

TRACK

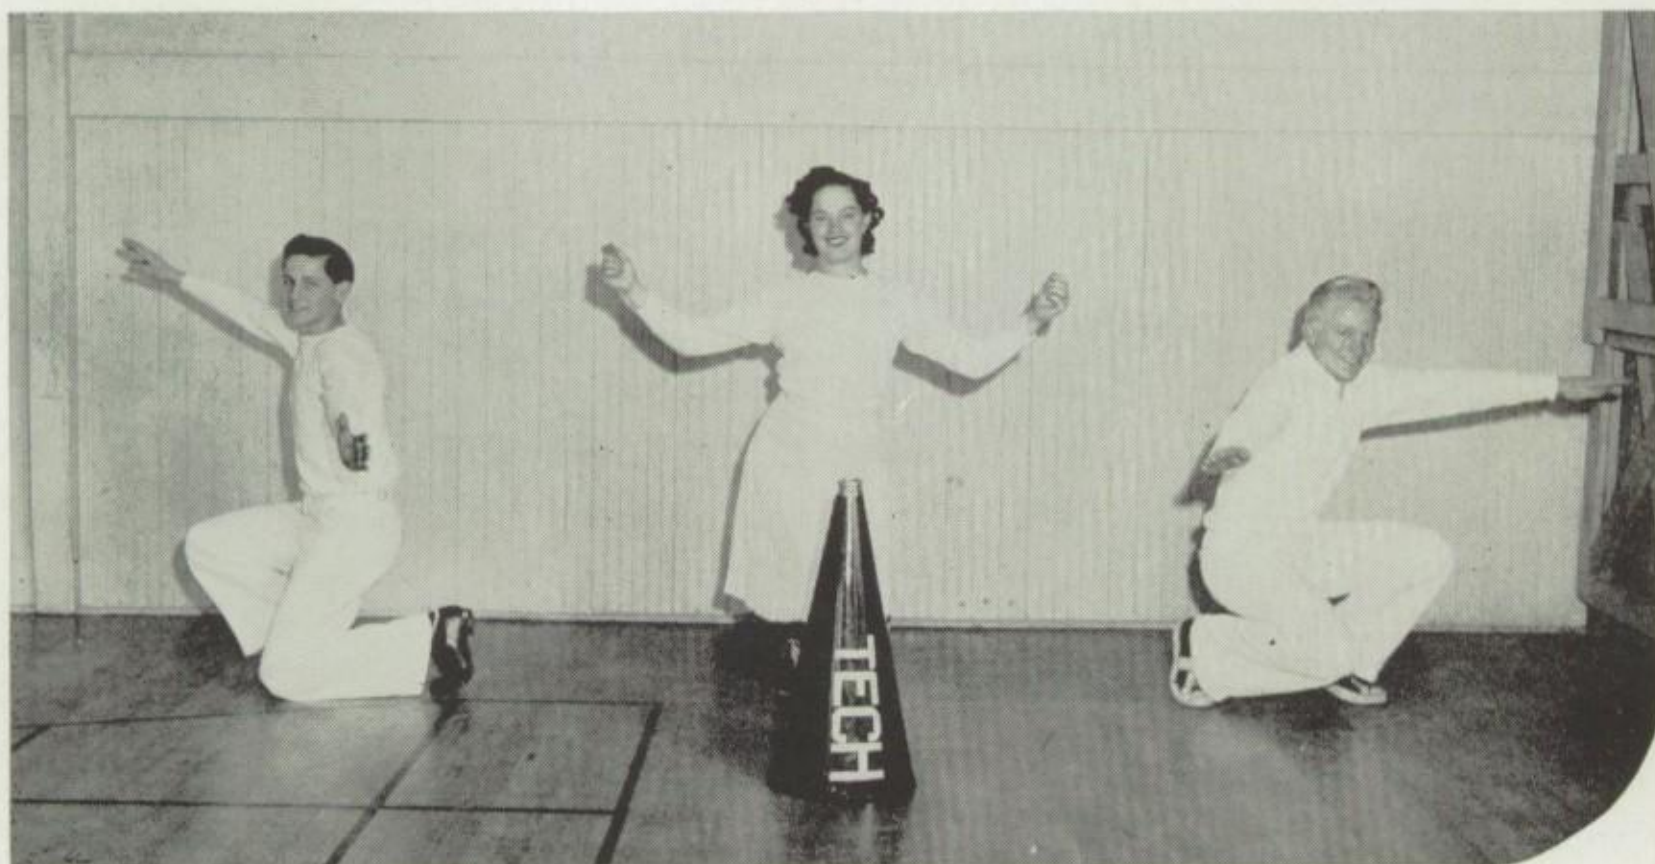

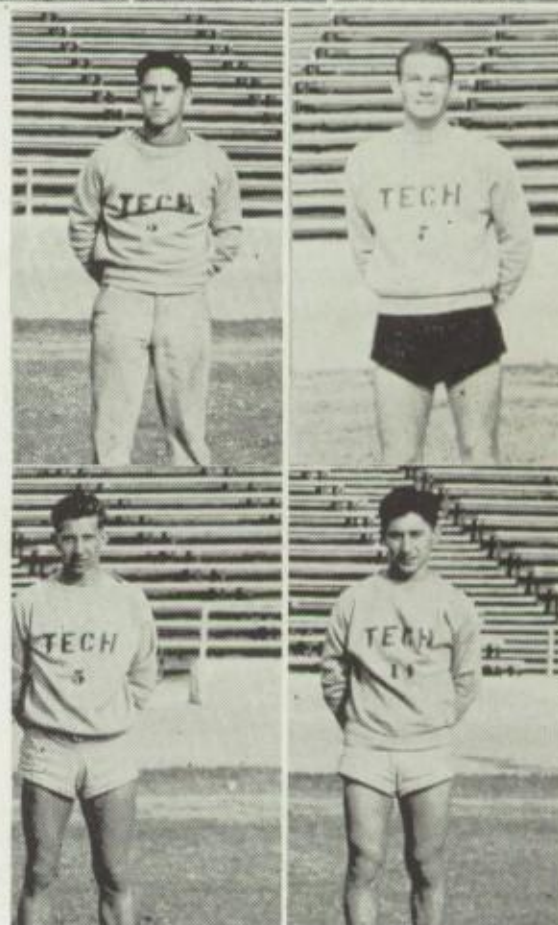

Neil Neimeyer bettered his 880-yard mark to 20:6 to place third. Bill Bell proved to be the starring A man when he ran a beautiful mile to finish a close second. John Terzian placed second in the pole vault by clearing a height of 10' 4", and in the broad jump with a leap of 13' 1". In the class C division Ecklund again placed second in the high jump followed by Bob Takasuka for third.

Coach Henderson entered four class A men in the city meet, and two of them placed. David Jackson won in the 440' event by beating Guess of Edison. Neil Neimeyer showed splendid form in the 880 by capturing second place. He was defeated by Ramirez of Edison, who established a new record.

In the B division John Terzian took an easy second in the pole vault by clearing 10' 9". Nick Kourafas took fourth in the discus event with a throw of 117'.

Jimmie Gee, class C veteran broad jumper, leaped 18' 3" to take second place. He was beaten 1' by Abo of Fresno Hi. Joe Thompson, a sophomore, took third in the pole vault.

David Jackson, first year trackman, ran a steady race to cop fourth in the 440 class A at the county meet.
